Awards

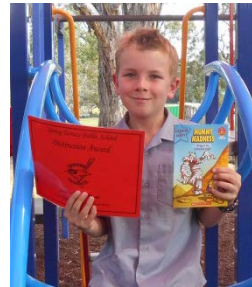

Congratulations to Alex, Anna-Rose, Rachel, James, Lawson, Kyla and Lauren

Awards

Well Done to Lachlan, Bradley and Nick on reaching 15 awards and earning their distinction award.

Lachlan has achieved great success in his reading and comprehension skills. He has a great skill in identifying themes in texts we read as a class. Lachlan always entertains us with his informative news with many interesting props to assist him. Lachlan brings variety and humour to our classroom on a regular basis. Thanks for being a great class member Lachlan!

Bradley takes pride in representing his school and has shown that he will be a great leader in 2015. In the classroom Bradley gets along with his classmates and is always happy to help others. In the playground he shows great citizenship, ensuring that everybody gets to join in soccer and other games.

Nick is always friendly and enthusiastic about school activities. Nick has an amazing general knowledge and often has shares interesting facts on a range of topics with the class. Nick gets along with the students in the playground, always showing great sportsmanship and citizenship.

SCHOOL SWIMMING SCHEME

We will be taking part in the school swimming scheme for the 2 weeks starting Monday 24th November. On Friday 28th November we will go to Blayney pool instead for our Spring Hill, Spring Terrace Carnival.

Timetable

9:55am: Leave by bus from the school

10:15 – 11:00am: Swimming lessons

11:00am: Changed into school clothes

11:20am: Return to school by bus

Students need to:

- Wear their swimmers under their school clothes to school.
- Bring a separate swimming bag, goggles, towel and underwear to change into after swimming.

May Cup Swimming Carnival

The May Cup Swimming Carnival between Spring Terrace and Spring Hill will take place at the Blayney Pool on this Friday 28 November beginning at 9:30am and concluding between 1:30 and 2pm. Children will need to be transported by parents to and from the pool.

There will be swimming or novelty events for all students from K-6 whatever their swimming ability. Parents are welcome to come along for the day to support the students.

Students and spectators will need to bring their own lunch. Students may also wish to bring some change for the snack vending machine.

Book Club

Please find attached Issue 8, 2014. Please return orders by Wed 3rd December.

School newsletters/website

Please note: - If for any reason you do not receive a newsletter of a Monday, please refer to the school website. Just google Spring Terrace Public School and there is a section underneath saying Newsletters just click on there and the newsletters come up. Once you are in the site then you can also select 'Calendar' and the events that are coming up are listed in advance for your information.
