School Holidays

Tomorrow, Thursday 2nd April is the last day of term 1. Students return to school on Tuesday 21th April.

Easter Assembly & Hat Parade

We will be holding our Easter Assembly and Hat Parade at school tomorrow starting at 2pm. Pre-schooler and children attending Spring Into School are also welcome to be involved. The activities will conclude with an Easter Egg Hunt.

Students do not have to wear school uniform tomorrow.

Cooking this week: Tomato Relish

This week the students cooked tomato relish and in the garden they researched how to make compost, we also picked our first water melon.

Winter Uniform

A reminder, we change to winter uniform for next term. If your child needs anything new please come into the school. Girls that need a winter uniform made please go into Kingfisher Clothing in Summer Street, Orange and get the measurements done so they can be made during the school holidays and ready for the Anzac March on Saturday April 25th, 2015.

Questacon Science Circus

Last Tuesday we hosted Questacon Science Circus. It was a great day – thank you to Mrs PE for all the hard work she put into organising everything, including a bit of rain.!!!

Athletics Carnival

The OSSA athletics carnival was held yesterday. Thank you to all the students, staff, parents and volunteers who made it such a successful day. The children participated enthusiastically and the following results were achieved: Lauren Sanders 1st in Shot put and Brooke Stansfield 2nd in High Jump.

P&C NEWS

P&C Athletics Carnival Catering: The P&C would like thank everyone for their assistance before and on the day. The organisation and preparation was very hectic but all the hard work paid off with Mr Scott receiving several compliments from people on how well the canteen was run. The profit from our venture is approximately $1200.00.

Election stall: Thank you also to all our helpers and organisers for the Election Stall on Saturday, especially our bakers for the cake stall. The P & C raised $441.35 with the Easter egg raffle still running.

Please see Shirley or Mrs Chapman to purchase tickets.

The Easter raffle will be drawn this Thursday.

Tickets $1

Can be purchased at school up until 2pm Thursday.

The next P&C meeting is: Wednesday afternoon 6th May.

Canteen: Term 2-Jenny Friday 24th April
