Awards

The following students received awards for last week: Brooke, Devlin, Chelsea, Bobbie, Lawson, Archie, Zakk, Tess and Abbey.

Zakk is a quick learner and has shown to apply himself well in Mathematics and Science. He is a wonderful helper in the classroom and always ready to lend a hand to the younger students. Zakk is an excellent problem solver and has an inquisitive mind. He is joining in soccer at play time and learning the rules. Well done Zakk.

Congratulations to Toby Annetts on achieving his Distinction award. Toby has been working hard in class and has made lots of great achievements this year. He is an excellent reader and shows fantastic imagination in writing. Toby gets along with everybody and is a great playground citizen. During play time Toby likes to play soccer and touch football.

Gymnastics

The children had a great time at gymnastics last Friday.

We will be having gymnastics again this Friday with the bus transporting students to the venue – Central West Gymnastics at 3 Barrett Court. Please be at the gym by 3:50pm to collect children. If you need to make different arrangements or are going to be late please ring the school or text or ring Mr Scott on 0404 200 651.

The Last Day of Term 2 – Fri 1st July

We are planning a fun activity for the last day of school. The students will come to school as normal in the morning then we will be travelling by bus to the Odeon Movie Theatre, where children may select to see either 'Finding Dory' or the latest 'Ice Age'. The bus will then transport the students to the gymnastics session after the movie. Parents and siblings are also welcome to attend with parents only being charged $9.50 – the children's rate.
