Absences

We have had a few phone calls and notes come in but there are still a lot of 'unjustified absences' on record. Please remember to contact your child's teacher, the school office or sign a note if your child is away. We can't assume your child is sick/still sick, we need confirmation on all absences. If you have a pink slip attached to the newsletter please complete and return or ring the school.

Book Week

Book Week is coming in two weeks' time. Our Book Week activities will take place on Tuesday 20th August.

Students are to come as their favourite book character.

The theme this year is "Reading is Your Secret Power"

Don't forget to catch the bus!

We are doing a great job catching the bus. Keep up the excellent work!
