This Thursday 29th August, all students in K-6 will be heading to the Orange Function Centre to participate in the Orange Eisteddfod. Students have been working hard each day and will be competing in the Small School Choir section with two contrasting songs, "Are We There Yet?" and "Those Magnificent Men In Their Flying Machines".

Students will be travelling by bus and are required to wear their formal winter uniform, the same as was worn for school photos.

This is a great experience and opportunity for all students, and we look forward to seeing them perform.
